CDR Robert DeBuse, USN
(b)(6), (b)(7)(C)

Dear Commander DeBuse:

This letter responds to your Privacy Act Requests dated October 17, 2014, which was referred to this command by U.S. Navy Inspector General's Office and received on February 1, 2015. This request, as required by law, was also considered under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

In your requests you seek a copy of all correspondence associated with the routing and completion of the two NAVIG reports conducted with you as the subject, as well as any paperwork considered by CNO in reaching a personnel decision regarding your career.

An investigation was conducted by U.S. Fleet Forces Command Inspector General's office at the request of the Naval Inspector General's Office (NAVIG). The results of that investigation were returned to NAVIG Office, the ultimate release authority for that information. Based on the documents referred to us by NAVIG, they already responded to you on that matter and further notified you of the referral of your request to the Navy Personnel Command, with regard to documents associated with any personnel decision made by them involving you.

However, in accordance with the Department of the Navy's FOIA regulations, a diligent search of the records held by USFF IGs office was conducted and no responsive information was found. Because you have received a "no records" response from this command, you may appeal this determination by writing to:

Office of the Judge Advocate General
Department of the Navy
Attn: FOIA Appeals, Code 14
1322 Patterson Ave, SE, Ste 3000
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066

Your appeal must be received within sixty (60) calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this response letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter and should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this decision to be in error.

I am the official responsible for this determination. Please contact Ms. Linda Alvers at (757)836-3630 if you require further assistance regarding this action.

Sincerely,

J. E. HANZLIK, JR.
